

BEFORE I KNEW IT,
I WAS COVERED
IN BOILING OIL.

My name is Randy Georges. I got third degree burns all over my body while working part-time at a restaurant.

THINK THIS COULDN'T HAPPEN TO YOU?
THINK AGAIN.

You're more likely to be injured in your first month on the job than at any other time. These injuries can be prevented. A safe workplace is every worker's right. It's your employer's responsibility to train you properly from day one. And it's your responsibility to take it seriously. Ask questions. And remember, you can always say no to work you don't think is safe.
