

Editing Terminology Quiz

(mark /12)

Fill in the blanks with the correct terms.

1. The folder where all media data files for a single project should be stored. _____
2. This occurs when the computer transfers a digital file or media and stores it as a Clip.

3. The visual workspace of a software program as it appears on a screen is known as a

4. A transition between two clips where the first fades down as the second fades up. This creates a softer visual or sound and can also be used to show the passage of time. _____
5. The monitor on screen where clips can be viewed or the editor can watch the sequence on the timeline when controlling the playhead. _____
6. The action where the computer accesses footage that is live or from video tape and stores it as a Clip. _____
7. The visual marker that indicates what part of the timeline or clip is being viewed. It is also used to indicate exactly where the user wants to edit. _____
8. A compatible media file that can be moved to the timeline to be manipulated. The media data actually remains in the bin, only a visual representation appears on the timeline for human use.

9. The visual workspace containing video and audio tracks that holds the arrangement of clips in the user’s desired sequence, including titles and transitions. _____
10. This action divides a clip so that a portion of it can be removed from the timeline. Using split edits on the timeline ensures that the original full clip remains available in the bin to repair any mistakes. _____
11. The way that one clip of video or audio ends and the next begins. (example: cut, fade, dissolve). _____
12. A transition where the video or audio increase from nothing (a black screen or silence) to full picture or sound over a specific time, or from full to nothing over a specific time.
